Plenty of Variety and Splendid Music at the

The Piechi concert last night wan full of variety and was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience; the El Paso singers were given a hearty reception; and Mr. and Mra. Piechi were in excellent voice and drew warm response from the house. Mr. Van Sutdam displayed high ability in his work, not only in rolos, but in dues and quarters, of most difficult operations only in rolos, but in dues and quarters, of most difficult operations. And sung in a foreign tonine Miso Margaerite Backler's high and clear soprato was heart to particular advantage in the Rivoleto quarter, where the apprano part is very exacting and her simple little songs were plausing as always.

Mr. and Mrs. Piechi singing together in the Favorita duet blended their voices beautifully; especially in the middle register for both, where individually was almost lost in the fine harmony. Mr. Piechi appeared in nothing to greater advantage than in the Nanoolitan sonax, which he sings with smooth and sustained phrasing that marks the finished artist. Mrs. Piechi is alice with natives dramatic fervor which marks all her work, and manifested their in the Carmon number seem without the accessories of costume and setting which always allow greater freedom of interpretation.

The calbette and character dancing interspersed between the parts of the concert program gave a pretty touch and by the diversion added to the enjoyment of the vocal music. The dancers were compelled to respond to merges.

ST. CLEMENT'S "PICKLES" COMEDY A BIG SUCCESS

"Pickles." a very delightful musical emedy, was presented with great meessa Tuesday night by the men's club of the church of St. Clement, in the parish house of the church. The parts were all capitally played and the nusical numbers received hearty enures from a large audience.

F. Jordan acted the part of "Pickles" and his song hit was "Now, i Have to Call Him Father," A. E. Bowlands sated the parts of "Mr Grow" and "Affonsa, the Walter," Howard Kix was ! K. Pinkum, a millionnine for the time being. His nows, "Let's "Go and Listen to the Band," was very nandlarly revelved Coopy Feason was "Fillip Stanton," a real millionaire. For George Wells took the part of the villain, "Peter Flint, who was looking for easy money. Clandus Smith was "Jim Mose," who was willing to help find it. J. L. Stanton acted two parts, "Rurley fill," rough and easy, and "Billy Stnart," a lady's man.

Miss Anne Lee Rix was a hit in the part, of "Poppy Crow," and her sons, "A Scasson at the Sea Shore, was repeatedly envoyed. She also sang Here Comes the Dream Man," and with Mr. Feggan sang a duet, "When I Told Them They Wouldn't Belleve Me," which was very well regelved. Miss Lucile liar-land was "Nell Crow," Mrs. E. H. Row-land was "Sophie," the French maid. F. Jordan acted the part of "Pickles"
